As a participant in the Games of the XXXI Olympiad in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (the "2016 Games"), I acknowledge and agree that my participation in the 2016 Games is conditional upon my acceptance of and my compliance with all the provisions of these Conditions of Participation and related rules referred to herein, which have been determined by the International Olympic Committee (the "IOC") and the Rio 2016 Organising Committee for the Olympic and Paralympic Games ("Rio 2016").

1. Capture and Use of Images: Participants may be filmed and photographed and may film and photograph, during the 2016 Games.

Understanding that as a participant in the Olympic Games, I am participating in an exceptional event which has ongoing international and historical significance and, in consideration of the acceptance of my participation therein, I agree to be filmed, televised, photographed, identified and/or otherwise recorded during the Olympic Games, and that my captured or recorded image, together with my name, likeness, voice, performance and biographical information, may be used in any content, format and through any media or technology whether now existing or created in the future, by the IOC and third parties authorised by the IOC during and after the Olympic Games in perpetuity in relation to the celebration and promotion of the Olympic Games, the Olympic Movement and the IOC in a commercial or non-commercial manner.

2. Processing of personal information: Rio 2016 and authorities of the Host Country require access to certain information, in particular to ensure the security at the 2016 Games, manage accreditations, competitions and results, carry out the anti-doping activities, prevent manipulations of competitions and provide services to participants and to the media.

I agree to personal information about me ("Personal Data") being collected by the IOC and Rio 2016 and to such data being stored and used by the IOC and Rio 2016 in any place required for its operation (including outside Brazil), for the purposes of facilitating my participation in, and/or organising, the 2016 Games. This consent includes the right for Rio 2016 and the IOC to collect and process my Personal Data, including where necessary to share such data with law enforcement authorities and other third parties, in all manners necessary for the following purposes:

- security risk assessments to be carried out by the Brazilian Government in order to grant accreditation for the Olympic Games;
- investigation and/or prosecution of breaches of any of the provisions referred to in paragraph 3 below (which may require, for example, the collection and analysis of blood and urine samples for doping related cases or of other relevant information in relation to the prevention of the manipulation of competitions);
- statistics, historical studies and other IOC-approved research projects conducted during and after the 2016 Games;
- any other data processing operation to which I provide my express consent to the IOC and/or Rio 2016;
- for Applicants under the age of 18-years-old at the date of signing this form: in order to enable the validation and confirmation of my participation in the 2016 Games, I hereby acknowledge that I must comply with the specific laws and regulations (Brazilian Minors Court rules and procedures) applicable to the participation of Minors in the 2016 Games.

3. Compliance with Olympic Charter and other rules: participation in the 2016 Games is subject to the compliance with the fundamental rules governing the Olympic Movement, which aim at ensuring the integrity of the 2016 Games and protecting the clean athletes.

I confirm that I have full knowledge of the provisions applicable to my participation in the 2016 Games and that I agree to comply with all the rules, and responsibilities applicable to my participation in the 2016 Games, in particular those arising from the following texts:

- the Olympic Charter and, in particular, the provisions reproduced on the back of these Conditions of Participation and related IOC guidelines and regulations;
- the World Anti-Doping Code, as well as the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the 2016 Games and any related regulations;
- the IOC Code of Ethics, and in particular the Rules on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions applicable to the 2016 Games and thus I will not participate in, support (including by disclosing inside information) or promote betting related to the 2016 Games;
- the IOC Social and Digital Media Guidelines.

I confirm that the above referred texts and all the rules, and responsibilities applicable to my participation in the 2016 Games, have been brought to my attention by my National Olympic Committee and by the IOC, among others through the IOC's official website: www.olympic.org

4. Acknowledgment and acceptance of risks while participating at the 2016 Games: participation may imply exposure to certain risks (e.g. injury, loss of property), which despite all care taken by Rio 2016 may not be completely eliminated.

I agree that I participate in the 2016 Games at my own risk; that I will take all reasonable measures to protect myself from the risks of participation; that I am responsible for all property I bring into the Olympic Games sites and that Rio 2016 and the IOC shall have no responsibility for any loss or damage to this property. To the fullest extent admissible under applicable laws, I irrevocably release Rio 2016 and the IOC (and their respective members, directors, officers, employees, volunteers, contractors or agents) from any liability for any loss, injury or damage that I may suffer in relation to my participation in the Olympic Games.

5. Arbitration: the Court of Arbitration for Sport is exclusively competent to finally settle all disputes arising in connection with the participation in the 2016 Games which have not been resolved by sports governing bodies.

I agree that any dispute or claim arising in connection with my participation at the 2016 Games, not resolved after exhaustion of the legal remedies established by my NOC, the International Federation governing my sport, Rio 2016 and the IOC, shall be submitted exclusively to the Court of Arbitration for Sport ('CAS') for final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Rules for the Olympic Games, and the Code of Sports-related Arbitration. The seat of arbitration shall be in Lausanne, Switzerland and the language of the procedure English. The decisions of the CAS shall be final, binding and non-appealable, subject to the appeal to the Swiss Federal Court. I hereby waive my right to institute any claim, arbitration or litigation, or seek any other form of relief, in any other court or tribunal.

6. National Olympic Committee's confirmation: the NOC hereby guarantees that all the relevant rules, including all those referred to above, have been respected and brought to the attention of the participant and that the NOC has been authorised by the National Sports Federation concerned to sign these Conditions of Participation on the latter's behalf, with the approval of the relevant International Federation.

I confirm that I have read and agreed to all the provisions of these Conditions of Participation and that my signature below is authentic and is the signature of the participant named above.

Olympic Charter - Selected Excerpts

Rule 40: Participation in the Olympic Games

To participate in the Olympic Games, a competitor, team official or other team personnel must respect and comply with the Olympic Charter and World Anti-Doping Code, including the conditions of participation established by the IOC, as well as with the rules of the relevant IF as approved by the IOC, and the competitor, team official or other team personnel must be entered by his NOC.

Bye-law to Rule 40

1. Each IF establishes its sport's rules for participation in the Olympic Games, including qualification criteria, in accordance with the Olympic Charter. Such criteria must be submitted to the IOC Executive Board for approval.
2. The application of the qualification criteria lies with the IFs, their affiliated national federations and the NOCs in the fields of their respective responsibilities.
3. Except as permitted by the IOC Executive Board, no competitor, team official or other team personnel who participates in the Olympic Games may allow his person, name, picture or sports performances to be used for advertising purposes during the Olympic Games.
4. The entry or participation of a competitor in the Olympic Games shall not be conditional on any financial consideration.

Rule 48: Media coverage of the Olympic Games

1. The IOC takes all necessary steps in order to ensure the fullest coverage by the different media and the widest possible audience in the world for the Olympic Games.
2. All decisions concerning the coverage of the Olympic Games by the media rest within the competence of the IOC.

Bye-law to Rule 48

1. It is an objective of the Olympic Movement that, through its contents, the media coverage of the Olympic Games should spread and promote the principles and values of Olympism.
2. The IOC Executive Board establishes all technical regulations and requirements regarding media coverage of the Olympic Games in a Technical Manual on Media, which forms an integral part of the Host City Contract. The contents of the Technical Manual on Media, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, are binding for any and all persons involved in media coverage of the Olympic Games.
3. Only those persons accredited as media may act as journalists, reporters or in any other media capacity. Under no circumstances, throughout the duration of the Olympic Games, may any athlete, coach, official, press attaché or any other accredited participant act as a journalist or in any other media capacity.

Bye-law to Rule 50

1. No form of publicity or propaganda, commercial or otherwise, may appear on persons, on sportswear, accessories or, more generally, on any article of clothing or equipment whatsoever worn or used by all competitors, team officials, other team personnel and all other participants in the Olympic Games, except for the identification - as defined in paragraph 8 below - of the manufacturer of the article or equipment concerned, provided that such identification shall not be marked conspicuously for advertising purposes.

The IOC Executive Board shall adopt guidelines that provide further details on the implementation of this principle.

Any violation of this Bye-law 1 and the guidelines adopted hereunder may result in disqualification of the person or delegation concerned, or withdrawal of the accreditation of the person or delegation concerned, without prejudice to further measures and sanctions which may be pronounced by the IOC Executive Board or Session.

The numbers worn by competitors may not display publicity of any kind and must bear the Olympic emblem of the OCOG.

8. The word "identification" means the normal display of the name, designation, trademark, logo or any other distinctive sign of the manufacturer of the item, appearing not more than once per item.

9. The OCOG, all competitors, team officials, other team personnel and all other participants in the Olympic Games shall comply with the relevant manuals, guides, regulations or guidelines, and all other instructions of the IOC Executive Board, in respect of all matters subject to Rule 50 and this Bye-law.
