THESES

THE RULES FOR FORMATTING

Deadline for submission of theses – until 15 September 2024.

The length should not exceed 2 pages.

Send theses to post@medsport.by marked "Theses".

Theses in Russian, Belarusian or English that have not been previously published and are not under review by other editors will be accepted for publication.

The theses should be of a high scientific standard and contain the results of research on the relevant topic. In order to submit a thesis, a file with the text in accordance with the requirements should be submitted. The name of the file should include the name of the author or the first co-author (e.g. "Petrov.doc/docx"). If several theses are submitted by the same author, the files with the same surname should be given sequential numbers ("Petrov-2.doc/docx").

Formatting guidelines for theses:

- ❖ Submissions should be submitted in digital form.
- ❖ Editing tool - Microsoft Word (.doc/docx).
- ❖ The font is Times New Roman.
- ❖ The font size (point size) is 12, without condensation or spacing.
- ❖ Line spacing is single, with no spacing before and/or after the paragraph.
- ❖ The text alignment is justified.

Tables should be presented as in-text (no illustrations allowed).

Figures should be inserted in the text in a meaningful place with captions (number and title of the figure), aligned to the center of the text. Figures should be clear, contrasting and the text should be legible and easy to read.

The text of the theses is structured according to sections:

- ❖ UDC.
- ❖ Surname and initials of the author(s) (Petrov P.P.).
- ❖ Academic degree and position.
- ❖ Place of work with indication of city and country.
- ❖ Name.
- ❖ Introduction.
- ❖ Aim.
- ❖ Materials and methods.
- ❖ Results.
- ❖ Conclusion.

The text must be carefully verified. The theses are published in the author's edition; the editorial board is not responsible for the accuracy of the information presented in the theses.

The editors reserve the right to edit the thesis materials. Minor corrections of a stylistic or formal nature are made to the thesis without the consent of the author.
